Pass4Leader

http://www.pass4leader.com/
Latest Exam Guide & Learning Materials
Exam : Magento-2-Certified-Solution-Specialist

Title : Magento 2 Certified Solution Specialist Exam

Vendor : Magento

Version : DEMO
NO.1 A merchant is trying to improve the customer experience for register customer and needs to provide shipping tracking numbers.
How do you do this?
A. Tracking numbers have to be entered during shipping creation and they will be accessible in the Orders section in My Account immediately.
B. Tracking numbers can only be added to order comments via the admin
C. Tracking numbers are only supported for UPS, USPS and FedEx carries out-of-the box for other carries it will require it customization.
D. Tracking numbers can be entered during invoice creation and they will only be visible after the order paid.
Answer: A

NO.2 A merchant has imported Youtube video URLs for all of the product but the videos are not displayed on the storefront.
Why are the video unable to be displayed?
A. The merchant did not assign preview image
B. The merchant did not enter their Youtube API key into the admin
C. The merchant did not assign a role to the preview image
D. Youtube videos don't displays for products, they can only be reference in CMS blocks.
Answer: B

NO.3 A merchant selling tools want a specialized shop for a specific profession. It requires a different category structure and a subnet of products.
How do you set up a specialized shop in Magento in addition to the main store?
A. Create a new website with one store and its own root category and one store view Assign the required products to the new website.
B. Create a new store view with its own root category within the main store. Assign products to the new categories tree
C. Create a new store with its own root category and store view within the same. Assign products to the store view
D. Create a new website, store, and store and keep the same category. Assign the required categories and products to the website.
Answer: B

NO.4 You are updating product information in the admin panel of your Magento store. Your updates are missing from the fronted of the site. You have refreshed the browser, checked the updated values in the admin panel several times, reindexed, and flushed the cache and yet the Changes are still missing.
Why are your updates missing?
A. You made updates at the Store View Scope but failed to update the Global scope to match.
B. You made updates at the Global but there is old content at the Store View scope.
C. Update only appear on the fronted when they have been added to a Scheduled Change
D. Your browser is using cached values and will continue to do so until the cache expires.
Answer: D
NO.5 You are configuring a Magento Commerce website for any company with multiple websites. Magento admins must only have access to information pertinent to the specific website to which they are assigned.

How do you configure this in Magento?

A. Modify me Role Resources for an existing admin Role.
B. Create a new admin Role with the Role Scopes limited to the applicable websites.
C. In each admin users configuration, select their applicable websites in the Apply To field.
D. Install a custom module to provide this functional.

Answer: A

NO.6 A Magento Open Source merchant sell toys and gift and wants to improve the experience on their website. The merchant wants to avoid extensions or customization.

How is this achieved?

A. Enable Wishlist functionality so customers can share a list for holidays or special occasions
B. Create a configuration Gift Card product available for online redemption.
C. Enable the Gift Registry and allow customers to create a public Registry accessible by direct URL
D. Enable anonymous RMA to allow customer to return gifts without informing the original buyer

Answer: D